

JAMES RAY DEAN
7215 Mitchell Drive, Terrell, Texas 75160
H-(972) 551-1005, Fax (972) 563-9890, E-mail (jamesrdean@msn.com)

CAREER TITLE: Safety Manager seeking a position to assist company with reducing accidents and injuries thus lowering cost and increasing profit and ensuring OSHA compliance.

SUMMARY

- Over 20 years experience in Safety and Health program implementation and management
- As Safety Director, conducted supervisor training, site audits, wrote Safety manual and managed Workers Compensation Program and reduced loss ratio 66% and premiums by 50%.
- Successfully investigated workers compensation invalid/suspicious/fraudulent claims and presented case winning conclusions at hearings.
- Extensive experience in creating Master Safety and Accident Prevention Plans for a variety of companies.
- Inspected facilities and job sites to identify safety hazards and potential OSHA/EPA violations
- Investigated work related accidents to determine cause and corrective actions
- Developed and Facilitated Emergency Evacuation Programs for a variety of companies

EXPERIENCE & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Safety Manager, TURNER INDUSTRIES GROUP Pipe Fabrication Paris, Tx. 2009
Successfully Managed Safety, Health and Environmental compliance, in a piping fabrication shop of over 330,000 square feet including a Paint facility, Fusion Bonding and blast facility that included Annual Federal and TCEQ Air Permit updates and Deviation reports.

Safety Engineer USPERSONNEL, G & A PARTNERS, USPERSONNEL IRVING, TX 2001 - 2008
DFW, Amarillo, Houston, Oklahoma, Georgia, North and South Carolina.

- Created company specific Master Safety and Accident Prevention Plans
- Assisted companies in reducing errors, injuries and product rejects.
- Developed and Facilitated Emergency Evacuation Programs for companies
- Assisted companies in complying with OSHA, DOT and EPA reporting requirements
- Companies included construction companies, metal fabrication shops, cabinet shops, Medical Facilities, etc.

Project Safety Manager HOWE-BAKER ENGINEERS/CBI Tyler, TX., 1996 - 2001
Texas Eastman, Longview, Texas - Phillips 66, Old Ocean, Texas - Air Liquide, Hamilton, Ontario,
Canada - Valero Refinery, Corpus Christi, Texas - Dow Chemical, Freeport, Texas

Construction of Hydrogen units in operating petrochemical plants.
Successfully organized, coordinated and managed safety, training, security, medical services and workers compensation programs over multiple contractors, (Union & Non-Union), coordinating civil, mechanical, electrical, insulators, painters, chemical cleaners and catalyst loading, on multi-million dollar projects

- One lost time injury during five years.

PAST PRESIDENT: American Society of Safety Engineers Chapters: Sabine Neches and Fort Worth, TX.

PUBLICATIONS:

PLANT/CONTRACTOR SAFETY PARTNERSHIPS, Plant Services Magazine, Putman Publishing
PRE-BID SAFETY REVIEWS, American Society of Safety Engineers, Construction Division News
HYDROSTATIC TESTING, American Society of Safety Engineers, Construction Division News
WELDING SAFETY, Industrial Safety & Hygiene News

EDUCATION:

Extensive Safety & Health specialist training courses completed
(BS) Safety Engineering Program, Kennedy Western University - (Enrolled)
Safety Degree Program, Craven Community College - New Bern, NC
Business Studies - Lubbock Christian College - Lubbock, TX
Public Administration - Amarillo College - Amarillo, TX