You've got to see it to believe it – Dallas/Ft. Worth, here we come – to the American Airlines Training and Conference Center. You will be right there where AA trains crews. You can eat at the Royal Coachman where they eat. You can visit their training facilities and marvelous museum. The Attractions are exciting and fabulous. Dallas/Ft. Worth also has many other restaurants and outstanding shopping. To help hold your costs down and minimize time away from your office – We are condensing everything into two days jam-packed with certification preparatory workshops, technical papers and special seminars aimed at updating your skills. This year's meeting will include important presentations on Homeland Security and Preparedness, Dealing with mold, Handling and Transporting Dangerous and Hazardous Materials, EPA planned changes, and ways to better your Environmental Management practices.

Choices and more choices. Starting on Wednesday, October 6th through Thursday, October 7th, you will have a series of eight choices to make from our 2-day certification preparatory workshops or concurrent sessions from the NREP/OIP BIG Annual Conference. The Conference portion will be a crammed with 40 concurrent technical presentations and workshops, both mornings and afternoons,
